Link to the Past is a classic role playing game for the Nintendo 64. It remains highly sought after by collectors, and is one of the best sellers. It introduced the Sheikah Slate to the series, and many other innovations. It is one of the essential RPG's of all time. However, this is not just any old remake of The Legend of Zelda, the original game has been updated and enhanced to include dozens of new features and levels. • We've doubled the size of Hyrule and added a new map. With many new features, puzzles, secrets, and a playable character with her own items and abilities. The map of Hyrule may take several hours to complete! • From the Original Game Master's Equipment to the new Sheikah Slate to over 60 new items, all redesigned for the N64 and Nintendo GameCube, Hyrule is larger and more detailed than ever! • Join the official Hyrule Warriors website: and get ready for the biggest Legend of Zelda game ever! • Explore the Chrono Chamber and get glimpses of the future! Discover the ruins of Hyrule in new stages! • Two new playable characters. Play as Zelda and link's friend, Bomboman, and explore a new Hyrule map and play new stages! • Our newest character is not only a playable character, but a playable sub-weapons for Link and Zelda! Prepare to traverse the new stages with new items! • New Items, new characters, new weapons, new combat, new story and gameplay! • 48 new hidden dungeons for exploration. • Full online leaderboards and achievements • The ability to save your game anywhere with our new drop-down map menu. • No paid unlocks. All content is available to play and unlock. Every time I play Hyrule Warriors, I love it. This is the spiritual successor to the original, and might just be the best Link game ever. This is a game worth owning, and one that every Zelda fan must experience. About This Game: Before Zelda, Super Mario or God of War, there was a little game called The Legend of Zelda, where you could save princesses and buy a house and a

My friend and I continue to be pen pals for most of the years between, causing us to come back and forth (that was until I moved to the outskirts of the city). My sophomore year she moved and then was unable to keep in contact and I feel horrible. I truly thought she was one of my best friends. The circle was back to it's original shape and me and my friend are back to pen pals, only 10 years apart in high school. I asked my friend if she'd ever thought about getting back in touch with her old school friends after moving to another state for school. I told her I really wished I could keep in touch with so many people. She thought for a moment and then told me to submit an official school form. I submitted my form and I felt like I was about to speak to a stranger. She became silent. I mean I think she had talked to her mom in reference to the form and was processing what she had said. I waited a few days for another response. Not even an email sent back, and I have no idea what the process is like for admissions. I just don't think they use these old school forms.
