
Goal 3 720p Torrent _BEST_

For the first time in this match, it would be nearly 30 minutes until a shot would be taken by either team in this match. After the 10th minute, the Milwaukee Torrent would play the remaining 30 minutes of the match with a 2-0 lead and would go on to win 4-1. Katie Koker once again would find herself in a challenging position in the box with a defender in front of her. She would use her speed to create space then put a spin move on her defender for the shot. Bonnie Lacy would control the ball deep in the box while Emma Keckeisen would control the ball in front of the box. Her long throw would find the waiting hand of Keckeisen. In turn, Keckeisen would make a run on the ball and high stick out Koker, who would then perfectly time her finish to the back-post with her off-hand. She would then attempt to quickly clear the ball to send it to Lacy but it would fall on the side and threaten the goal before Koker could clear her lines. After a couple of minutes of play, the Torrent would get the first goal of the game in the 57th minute. A long throw from Emma Keckeisen would fall to the feet of Francisco Felipe who would beat the goalkeeper at the near post to give the Torrent the lead. In the 61st minute, the Torrent would put the match away when Koker would get down the left side of the box. She would receive a pass from Lacy and take time on the ball. As she did, Koker would look left and right to the defenders for help before taking a few steps and driving on goal. If the penalty kick went in the new torrents would continue to come down. But with her team already in the penalty box, Chicago would find a way to tie the score up on a set piece. After a long look to see if there was a big over hanging tree, the ball went to Nikki Jordan. She would run 60 yards to break the defense, find the shooting lane, and make a diving header that would slide across the face of goal into the back corner. BUY HERE chattanooga would look to get the lead back into the game. gabby steffen would get the ball and play it down the field to megan schmied.

schmied would send it on to rebecca dye, who would send it into the box where bonnie lacy would send it past the goalkeeper. after going behind to a first-half goal, rotherham fans hoped that their team would come back from two goals down to defeat. but it was the hammers that got the better of them on this occasion as their opponents succumbed to a 4-1 defeat. this was the third straight defeat for rotherham, who have lost their last four league games. three minutes and three seconds into the second half, veretout had a chance to make it 3-0, but his shot went just wide of the far post. then, just past the hour, he grabbed his second of the game, firing into the corner of the net. the final goal came shortly after that, when the ball dropped to him and he fired home the fourth, sending the game into extra time. the victory was pirate tokens very much deserved. the argentine striker scored the fourth goal, but the match finished with a draw. after the match, the argentine national team's manager, gerardo martino, said: "i take full responsibility, the players gave me everything they had. they gave their best to win the game and then came back to defend their title in berlin and they did it. i am very proud of my players." late in the first half, a long throw-in was won by pirate tokens and the ball landed to the feet of fernando torres, who struck the ball with pace and shot towards the far post. however, the ball was blocked by several players, and the defender was on hand to knock it back for the goalkeeper to save. the ball came loose as it was cleared and torres made his way towards the back post and he managed to push it home.
