
Sims 4 Skin Overlay Male !FULL!

this may be the last skin pack in this post. actually, its already on my sims and in this skin pack i have included clothes for sims ages 6-18! if you are one of the lucky ones who got your hands on the simpad you will not have to worry about slots. the kit comes with five different styles of clothing. the strudel skin overlay isn't as revolutionary as some of the other skins on this list, but in my mind, it could be the best skin i've ever seen! this skin includes both a full overlay, face only and body only variations of the skin, and you can also customize the eyes, skin tones, and facial features with different 5 different types of eyes! definitely have a look at this skin for your sims! next we have the pure nature skin overlay. this skin is a totally new experience for mine. this skin mod doesn't fix anything, doesn't change the structure of anything, it doesn't change any objects or placebos or anything like that. this is a skin mod, meant to give your sims faces the appearance of being rugged, unkempt, and wild. what's great about the skin mod is that it is completely customizable for the amount of fuzziness you want on your sims face. it also has a default version and a custom version. the honeynutz4skin overlay is just a beautiful skin mod that is probably the best skin i've seen that isn't too big of a change like the others. you get a full version of the overlay as well as a body only version. the skin has subtle tones in it, so it has a very natural appearance to it. i would recommend this skin for your sims who are a bit dark in tone or who have a bit of a dark sense of humor.
